

Dr. Jacqueline McMillan (2013)

currently serves as the Vice President of Enrollment Management at Wright State University where she has held multiple roles, each with increasing responsibility. Dr. McMillan has not only served as an impactful leader on campus and in the community, but she has also mentored and supported countless women students, faculty, staff and administrators. She is known and admired by her colleagues for her keen mind, her kind words of support and encouragement, and her strong track record of successful projects and initiatives. She is a strong role model for women and men alike that through action and leadership has made the Dayton area a strong community. Dr. McMillan earned a PhD in Higher Education Administration from the Union Institute and her MS in Administration from Central Michigan University. She remains active in her community and is currently serving on the Board of Directors for both Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Greater Miami Valley and the Nathaniel Anthony Ayers Foundation of Atlanta, Georgia.