

Dr. Lynn Singer (2009) serves as Deputy Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs at Case Western University. As a professor of pediatrics and psychiatry, Dr. Singer has directed federally funded research projects that represent $25 million of funding to the university. Dr. Singer earned her MA and PhD in clinical psychology from Case Western Reserve University. Previously she had earned a bachelor's degree from Duquesne University and M.Ed. from the University of Pittsburgh. She has edited two books and authored more than 100 articles in the medical and psychological literature. Dr. Singer also serves on numerous national NIH and other governmental review committees.