

Nicole Neely (2017) is the Assistant Director of Annual Programs and Donor Relations at Ohio Northern University. Nicole earned her Bachelors in Business Administration at Bowling Green State University where she found her passion for higher education and university advancement. She plans to use this award to attend the Case District V Conference in hopes to expand ONU's new Young Alumni Council and represent ACE Women's Network - Ohio and support their mission to help women gain leadership expertise in higher education.